

Percussion Family SPOTTER

As you listen to music — in this episode or any time — check a box each time you hear one of the percussion instruments below. Can you tell them apart just by listening? Use the sound words as clues!

Timpani

deep, booming, rumbling, powerful, rolling, dramatic

Xylophone

woody, bouncy, bright, hollow, crisp, playful, clattery

Piano

warm, ringing, rich, familiar, gentle or bold, all-in-one

Snare Drum

crisp, sharp, rattly, snappy, tight, drumroll-y, military

Cymbals

crashing, shimmering, bright, loud, metallic, splashy, ringing

Tambourine

jingly, shaky, bright, lively, rattly, playful

Learn about the percussion family in Episode 184 of Busy Kids Love Music!
(Note – these are only SOME of the instruments from the percussion family!)